Members are now entitled to receive the following post free without charge:—

1. THE ECONOMIC JOURNAL.

Quarterly.

Editors: J. M. Keynes
D. H. Macgregor

2. THE ECONOMIC HISTORY SUPPLEMENT.

Annual.

3. THE LONDON AND CAMBRIDGE ECONOMIC SERVICE
BULLETINS on Current Economic Conditions and Statistics in Great Britain.

Quarterly.

4. THE LONDON AND CAMBRIDGE ECONOMIC SERVICE
BULLETIN on Current Economic Conditions and Statistics in Europe.

Annual.

5. Sundry Special Memoranda (about two a year).

The Society is run, not for profit, but for the encouragement and diffusion of Economic Science. The large increase in its membership since the War has, therefore, enabled the Society to furnish its members with a much increased quantity of Economic Literature and Statistics at no increased cost to the members.

Applications for Membership, accompanied by a remittance, should be addressed to:—The Secretary, Royal Economic Society, 9 Adelphi Terrace, London, W.C. 2., England.
